

University Lectureship in Economic History using macrodata Institute of Economic Research, Hitotsubashi University

Job Description

The Institute of Economic Research at Hitotsubashi University invites applications for one fixed-term (non-tenure track) or tenure track lecturer, associate professor or professor positions mainly in economic history using macrodata. The primary job responsibility is to conduct high-quality academic research, but participation to institute-wide research projects and teaching one lecture course at the Graduate School of Economics are also required.

Institution

Institute of Economic Research, Hitotsubashi University

Department

Research Division of Economic Measurement and Statistics (April, 2015–)

<http://www.ier.hit-u.ac.jp/English/index.html>

Location

2-1 Naka, Kunitachi, Tokyo 186-8602 Japan (near Japan Railways Kunitachi Station)

Position Title

Lecturer, Associate Professor or Professor level

Rank

Full-time tenure track. Or full-time (non-tenure track), a fixed term of 3 years. The term can be extended for two years after screening.

Number of positions

One lecturer/associate professor/professor

Research field

Economic History using macrodata

Qualifications

Applicants should have a Ph.D. in economics before taking up the position. We welcome applicants of all nationalities, but candidates should be able to communicate fluently in English or Japanese.

Deadline for applications

February 27th, 2015.

Starting date

April 1, 2015 (or later upon consultation).

Application Materials

Please send the following items (in English or Japanese) to the mailing address below. We do not accept electronic submissions.

1. Curriculum vitae
2. List of publications (please list refereed journal articles and other publications separately)
3. A maximum of three representative research papers with one-page summary for each paper
4. Research proposal (please describe current and future research plans)
5. Certificate of Ph.D. degree (or a letter from the applicant's advisor to provide an expected date of completion)
6. One reference letter from a person familiar with the applicant's research ability and skills.

Where to send the application

Yuki Matsuzaki

Institute of Economic Research, Hitotsubashi University

2-1 Naka, Kunitachi, Tokyo 186-8603 Japan

Phone +81-42 (580) 8327 e-mail: yuki@ier.hit-u.ac.jp

1. Please note "Application materials for lectureship in Economic History using macrodata enclosed" in red on the envelope.
2. Materials will not be returned. Application materials will be used for selection process of this lectureship only and the institute will dispose them properly.

Selection process

After reviewing the applications, selected candidates will be contacted for scheduling a seminar presentation and interviews at the Institute of Economic Research at Hitotsubashi University.

We have a limited budget to reimburse travel and accommodation expenses for candidates from overseas giving seminar presentations.

Contact Information

For any questions related to applications, please contact:

Ms. Yuki MATSUZAKI

Institute of Economic Research

Hitotsubashi University

2-1 Naka Kunitachi, Tokyo 186-8603, JAPAN

E-mail: yuki@ier.hit-u.ac.jp

TEL: +81-42-580-8327 FAX: +81-42-580-8333