

FUTURE RESEARCH IN OPEN INNOVATION

<Abstract>

Professor Vanhaverbeke is co-editor (with Henry Chesbrough and Joel West) of "Open Innovation: Researching a New Paradigm", a new book about the research challenges related to Open Innovation. The book is published by Oxford University Press (2006). He is currently developing a proposal for a new management book about "Implementing Open Innovation". He is extending research about open innovation and open business models by setting up the European Center for Open and Collaborative Innovation and by doing joint research with the Zhejiang University (Hangzhou, China).
