

PIE-Stage 2
Economic Analysis of Intergenerational Issues:
Peer Reviews

(grant number: 18002001)

July 2009

Project on Intergenerational Equity
Center for Intergenerational Studies
Institute of Economic Research, Hitotsubashi University

Preface

This is a collection of peer reviews on the Project on Intergenerational Equity (PIE) at Stage 2, which was launched in July 2006 and will continue until March 2011. Peer reviews are based on the June-2009 progress report of the PIE.

The list of distinguished peer reviewers is as follows:

- 1) Robert Holzmann, Prof. Dr., World Bank
- 2) Joshua Lerner, Professor, Graduate School of Business Administration, Harvard University, US
- 3) Olivia Mitchell, Professor, The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, US
- 4) Edward Norton, Professor, Department of Economics, University of Michigan, US
- 5) John Piggott, Professor, Australian School of Business, University of New South Wales, Australia
- 6) Mark Rebick, Dr., Nissan Institute of Japanese Studies, University of Oxford, UK
- 7) Warren Sanderson, Professor, Department of Economics, Stony Brook University, US

As the director and CEO of the PIE, I would like to express my deep appreciation to the above reviewers for taking their valuable time to carefully examine the progress report and read major relevant articles of the PIE in writing their reviews. The PIE research team will earnestly take their reviews into account to make further improvements.

The peer reviews are scheduled to be published and also uploaded on the PIE's website.

27 July 2009

Noriyuki Takayama, Prof. Dr.
Director and CEO
Project on Intergenerational Equity
Center for Intergenerational Studies
Institute of Economic Research, Hitotsubashi University

Contents

Preface

1. Review Report by R. Holzmann	1
2. Review Report by J. Lerner	4
3. Review Report by O. Mitchell	7
4. Review Report by E. Norton	11
5. Review Report by J. Piggott	13
6. Review Report by M. Rebick	18
7. Review Report by W. Sanderson	20