

Organizer: Institute of Economic Research (IER), Hitotsubashi University
Co-organizer: Hitotsubashi University International Seminars, Philosophy Conference for Shigoto

What's Missing in Economics

Philosophical Perspectives on the Future of the Economy

2pm-5:35pm on Sunday, 23 September 2018

Conference Room, Mercury Tower, 7F
2-4, Higashi, Kunitachi, Tokyo
Hitotsubashi University Kunitachi East Campus

Program

Chair: Reiko Gotoh (Professor, IER, Hitotsubashi University)

- 14:00-14:10 Opening remarks by Reiko Gotoh
- 14:10-14:15 Greeting from the Organizer, Takashi Oshio (Director, IER)
- 14:15-15:05 “Welfare Economics Confronts the Extreme”
Jean-Pierre Dupuy (Professor, Ecole Polytechnique, Stanford University)
- 15:05-15:10 Break (5 minutes)
- 15:10-15:40 “Economics’ as Thought - Possibility of Dupuy’s Philosophy -”
Osamu Nishitani (Professor, Rikkyo University)
- 15:40-15:45 Break (5 minutes)
- 15:45-16:35 Discussion: “Prepare for Catastrophe - What We Believe -”
Jean-Pierre Dupuy and Paul Dumouchel(Professor, Ritsumeikan University)
- 16:35-16:45 Break (10 minutes)
- 16:45-17:25 Q&A
Jean-Pierre Dupuy, Paul Dumouchel and Osamu Nishitani
- 17:25-17:35 Closing remarks by Reiko Gotoh
- 18:00-20:00 Discussion Session (Mercury Hall)