

International Symposium TWO ASIAs

October 2, 2010 (Sat.)

[Venue]

Graduate School of International Corporate Strategy (ICS)
Hitotsubashi University,
Kanda, Tokyo

[Co-hosts]

The Japan Foundation
University of North Carolina (UNC)
Institute of Economic Research, Kyoto University (KIER)
Russian Research Center, Institute of Economic Research, Hitotsubashi
University (RRC/H-IER)
Hitotsubashi University International Seminars

[Program]

Session I: 10:00 - 10:30

Opening Address

Masaaki Kuboniwa (IER, Hitotsubashi University)

Project Description

Steven Rosefielde (University of North Carolina: UNC)

Session II: 10:30 - 12:00

Panel I: Asian Divide 1500-2010

Postwar Asian Paradigm Shifts: 1945-2010

Steven Rosefielde

Panel II: Financial Crisis 2008

Institutional Setting, Structural Vulnerability, and Policies: the EU in the Framework of Global Imbalances

Bruno Dallago (University of Trento)

Chiara Guglielmetti (University of Trento)

Inter-regional Inter-dependencies

Mia Mikic (ARTNeT)

Lunch: 12:00 - 13:00

Session III: 13:00 - 14:00

Back to decoupling? The impact of the global financial crisis on Asian emerging economies

Ilkka Korhonen (Bank of Finland)

Tajik-Russian Labor Movement and Remittance-dependent Poor Asian

Kazuhiro Kumo (IER, Hitotsubashi University)

Coffee Break: 14:00-14:10

Session IV: 14:10-16:10

Panel III: Contemporary Asian Systems

Postcrisis Asia in the New Global Disequilibrium Epoch

Steven Rosefielde

Business society under the crisis: A comparative analysis of CSR in Russia and Japan

Satoshi Mizobata (KIER, Kyoto University)

Panel IV: Two Asias in the Mirror of the Post-communist Transition Experience

The resurgence of the Russian economy: crisis, modernisation and geo-economics

Eric Brunat (University of Savoie)

The Impact of Global Shocks on BRICs: Diagnosing “Russian Disease”

Masaaki Kuboniwa

Coffee Break: 16:10 - 16:30

Session V: 16:30 - 17:00

Discussion

Closing notice

Steven Rosefielde / Masaaki Kuboniwa

Contributors' meeting: 18:00-20:00

in Restaurant “Kyohan-tei” (for Contributors)