

CALL FOR PAPERS, 16TH ANNUAL MACRO CONFERENCE

Dear All:

As you may know, the Macro Conference has been held once a year since 1999. The 16th Macro Conference will be held at Keio University's Mita Campus on Saturday-Sunday, November 29-30, 2014.

The financial sponsors are the Tokyo Center for Economic Research (TCER), Faculty of Economics, Keio University, the UTokyo Price Project, Research Center for Economic and Social Risks, Hitotsubashi University, Research Grant: "Japan's international adjustments under the aging and population decline", and the Institute of Social and Economic Research of Osaka University, and the members of the organizing committee and program committee are as shown below.

If you are interested in submitting a paper to this conference, please send your paper by email as an attached file to the four program committee members shown below simultaneously by Sunday, August 31, 2014 (Japan time).

Full papers are preferred but a 10-page abstract is also acceptable. However, please send your full paper to the three program committee members and to the designated discussant by Friday, October 31, 2014 (Japan time).

Also, please suggest two individuals as designated discussants, but it is not necessary to contact them in advance.

There will be no particular topic for this conference, and any macroeconomics-related paper will be welcome, whether it is theoretical or empirical.

We will inform you of our decision on or around Tuesday, September 30, 2014.

We will pay the travel and lodging expenses of all paper presenters, designated discussants, and chairpersons. However, we may not be able to pay for the travel expenses of those coming from abroad.

We look forward to receiving many interesting submissions.

Please forward this message to any professors, researchers, graduate students, friends, acquaintances, etc., who may be interested.

With best wishes,

Co-Sponsors/Organizing Committee

Naohito Abe, Tokuo Iwaisako (Hitotsubashi University)

Yoshiyasu Ono (Osaka University)
